EDWARD W. CONNELLY

The annual Children's Christmas Party was held last Sunday at the Congregational Church parish house, and 125 youngsters enjoyed an afternoon of pleasure—a visit from Santa, a show, refreshments, and a large bag of toys to take home. The committee under the chairmanship of Tom O'Connell and the workers Dr. Wein, Emil Grenier, George Andrews, Bob Watson, Nick Zucco, John Porter, Woody Roberts, and many others were given three big cheers by the kids. Many other Lions provided the needed transportation to and from the party.

The next meeting on Wednesday, January 8, will be held in the newly refurbished American Legion home on Springfield Street, and members are asked to make note of this date.

Secretary A. Duane Stebbins is now taking reservations for the Mid-Winter Conference to be held at the Schine Inn on Saturday, January 18.

VFW Children's Yule Party Sunday

A Christmas Wish

"May this Christmas season bring you deep joy and many pleasant experiences. May the New Year bring you that peace that 'passeth the understanding of men' and may it bring nothing into your life to cause anxiety or worry. May all your days be full of sunshine and your nights filled with pleasant dreams. May no dark clouds appear to shut out any of the beauties of life or of nature, all about you. May you be able to see stars shining through any clouds that may appear on your horizon. May you have wisdom for all your problems, and help in true friends all along the way, to the very end of life's journey. This is my wish for you and yours at this Christmas season." by C. B. Baird.

Bayberry candles, which are said to foretell good luck for the coming year if they burn bright at Christmas, were first made by early settlers in America. They dipped bayberry branches in wax and burned them during the holidays.

The number of mince pies you taste at Christmas indicates the number of happy months you'll have during the coming year, according to an old English belief.

"Let's Light A Candle"

Dear Fellow Agawamites:

Sunday, December 22, 1963 will be the last day of mourning for our beloved late President.

Let's light a candle and join the country in its memorial honoring JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

Services are being broadcast on Station N.B.C. at dusk by President Johnson. The idea for these last services is to expel the atmosphere of bitterness which existed at the time of his death and learn to "LOVE THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF."

The bells that tolled for Kennedy tolled to some extent for every citizen. He represented us all, and in that sense, we were part of him.

The causes that he championed, PEACE, JUSTICE, AND EQUALITY live on and become our challenges.

Let him not have died in vain. Thank you,

Sincerely
Mrs. Alda Bedard

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

Massachusetts deer hunters have just completed the best safety record for deer seasons to date. Only one incident, a self-inflicted wound to a hunter's hand, was reported to the Division of Law Enforcement during the deer season which ended Dec. 7. For the second year in a row, no accidents involving anyone being mistaken for game, or unseen in the line of fire, were recorded. This is the second year that deer hunters have been required to wear fluorescent red or orange.

The Green Mountain state, Vermont, finished the deer season without one fatality, and they are just as proud of the feat as we are in this state. The state of Vermont does not require the wearing of fluorescent colors while hunting for deer, but we could not help noticing the many hunters wearing the colors. We found that practically every hunter so attired was either from Massachusetts or Connecticut. Maine should adopt the colors legally and the appalling death count of hunters during the open season on deer and humans would drop to nil. Want to bet?

THE WEAKER SEX??

A shot rang out and a jubilant hunter cried to his partner, "I got him!"

As the two men approached the fallen deer, a woman hunter emerged from the brush and stated, "That's my deer!"

"Your deer!" exclaimed the man. "I just killed it."

"Maybe so, but my tag's on it," was the reply.

"If your tag is on it, you can have it," responded the man unbelievably.

The trio walked up to the deer and sure enough the lady's tag was on it! She had shot and dropped the animal, she explained, but when she was tagging it, it got up and ran off.

True to his word, the disappointed man watched as the woman hunter left the woods with the deer. This happened during the hunting season this year in New Hampshire.

America can be proud of and thankful for a constitution which guarantees the right of its citizenry to possess firearms, forming a combative homeguard that could give trouble to any aggressor. The Communist countries realize this and it is one of the main deterrents preventing the occupation of this country by an aggressor nation. During the Cuban crisis, the late President Kennedy called the head of the NRA (National Rifle Association) for a conference and discussed the major role NRA would have in mobilizing the thousands of citizen guns in delaying the enemy long enough for the military forces to reorganize after the enemy's initial attack.

The invaders would like nothing better than to be able to occupy a town in the U. S. and have at their fingertips a complete list of citizens with rifles and shotguns in their possession. A very simple matter for the enemy to round up the guns and ammunition in the patriots' home. FIGHT THE ANTI-GUN FANATICS NOW.

The Veterans of World War One will hold their last Turkey Shoot of the year at the Agawam Sportsman Club on Corey Street this coming Sunday.

This will be a Grand Slam shoot and the prize is a fifteen pound turkey and a complete Christmas dinner for the winner. Turkeys will be awarded to other lucky sportsmen.

Ammunition will be supplied by the club and if you do not have a gun they will let you borrow one. Door prizes will be awarded.

Police Association Elect Officers

The Agawam Police Association recently elected officers for their 1964 season. Peter Bertera, was elected president with Robert Ormsby, serving as vice-president, Henry Drewnowski, treasurer, Frank Evangelist, secretary and John Chiscola, grievance commission chairman.

SQUARE DANCE

By Norm and Dot Jenks

Junior High Choralettes
Entertain

The Agawam Promenaders enjoyed a holiday treat last Friday when the Junior High Choralettes led by Mrs. Mary Wuesthoff presented a program of Christmas carols. Their clear, youthful voices delighted everyone.

Numerous door prizes were awarded and gifts were presented to Dick Steele, our regular club caller, and his wife Carol. Unfortunately Dick was troubled somewhat with a cold and two callers, who were at the dance gave him a helping hand. Dick Mastriani and Al Besette each called a set of dances, then Dick came back and called the final dance.

Fran and Carl Link had a special holiday cake for the coffee break which we all enjoyed.

The West Springfield Club had two sets in attendance and were presented with an Agawam "A" since they already had an Agawam Banner.

Prudy and Bernie Cawley plus committee did a fine job organizing this wonderful party.

New Banner Tree

We have a new banner tree thanks to Bob Geiger. It was put to use right away and I must say it is pretty full.

Next Dance the 27th

December 27th the Agawam Promenaders will have a dance at the Feeding Hills Congregational Church Hall at 8 p.m. Dick Steele will call. Make plans to be there!

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO EVERYONE FROM THE AGAWAM PROMENADERS!

E. L. Coin-Stamp Club Yule Party

The East Longmeadow Coin and Stamp Club will have a combined meeting and Christmas Party, Sunday, Dec. 29, at the American Legion Hall, Gunther-Rowley Post, at 6 p.m. There will be a short business meeting to elect officers for the coming year and the rest of the evening will be devoted to the Christmas Party with refreshments and a "gab" session planned.

Each member is asked to bring a gift of numismatic or philatelic nature, not to exceed $1 for the yearly exchange of gifts. An old-fashioned swapping session may be enjoyed by any member desiring to bring coins or stamps for swapping.

My Beat — A.H.S.

by Marsha Della-Giustina

Little boys with bows, babes in diapers, little girls in pink dresses and petticoats, a senior hugging her teddy bear, little cowboys — all of these will be seen at the annual Kid Party.

Saturday night at 8 o'clock the Agawam High cafeteria will host the 250 members of the senior class. The annual "Kid Party" is one of the most treasured events of the senior year for it is the last time the seniors will be together as a whole group until their banquet which will be held in May at Shaker Farms. Costumes of various colors, shapes, sizes, and ideas will help the decoration committee, which is headed by Jean Daubitz, to liven up the cafeteria. Judy Bonkowski and Joe DiDonato are doing a marvelous job as general co-chairmen and have everything under control. Adding to the Christmas theme will be Santa Claus who could be no one else but John Klenakis! Jean Voislow and her committee are busily baking all sorts of goodies for the usually hungry seniors! Meanwhile, on the money end, Danny DeBiasio, class treasurer, is collecting the necessary class dues which the seniors must pay before they can attend. Let's get those dues in!

As all the faculty members are receiving invitations from Sharon Strole, who heads the committee, they are wondering if they should also come in costume! See you seniors there!

Christmas Parties Held

Many clubs have held their Christmas parties this week. The Future Teachers Club enjoyed a very memorable get-acquainted Christmas party! Games were played, refreshments served, and a good time was enjoyed by all!

The Latin Club experienced a very unusual party called the Saturnalia. The members came dressed in Roman togas. The highlight of the party was playing "Pin the toga on the Puer (boy)!"

The French Club was gifted with a Santa Claus who was Manny Cincotta! Gifts, refreshments, and lots of laughs were enjoyed!

The Drama Club, the Future Teachers Club, and the Spanish

Club also enjoyed parties. Tomorrow the Library Staff will hold their annual party last period in the library!

Coming events: MIRROR goes on sale! Don't forget to buy one! ...I wish each and everyone of you a very Merry Christmas!
